

What does 'Available credits' mean ?

Available credits is the number of contact credits left in your account.

Credits are used to get contact details.

After you have clicked on the Reveal Contacts button the system will launch real-time search&verification of contact details.

If it finds NO verified contact details, NO credits will be deducted.

1 credit is deducted only if the system finds at least 1 email/phone number.